Terms and Conditions

You are welcome to use any public areas of the gardens for your photographs. We do ask that you avoid any area where another wedding ceremony is taking place. Please take care not to step on plants or walk in garden beds as our gardens are both beautiful and fragile. You are welcome to use the paths that wind through the gardens. Please do not stand in the garden beds for photographs or pick flowers from the gardens.

The applicant shall not cause or display any images of words, acts or other material of a crude offensive nature that is likely to embarrass or distress or in any way injure the reputation of Wanneroo Botanic Gardens.

Please do not attach signs or fixtures to walls, doors, posts, trees or any other surface. Tents, marquees or umbrellas must be approved by management prior to the event and only erected in approved locations

All photo subjects must be fully or appropriately clothed. Swimsuit photo shoots are not permitted.

Exclusive use of Wanneroo Botanic Gardens is only available Mondays excluding public and school holidays

Images and the logo of Wanneroo Botanic Gardens are registered trade-marks and shall not be used with written and signed permission

Clients are financially responsible for any damage to the property, garden beds or equipment supplied, that may be caused by guests associated with your event.

Maps of the gardens are available and can be downloaded from our website.

Wanneroo Botanical Gardens owners and management reserves the right to refuse hire of the gardens for photographs and videos to any party at their own discretion.

By signing this you hereby agree to the Terms and Conditions.
